A POLICEMAN ASSAULTED.

ficer Pillow Beaten by Two Men Whom He Attempted to Arrest. Last night, about 10 o'clock, Policeman . A. Pillow, of the Third District, while attempting to arrest Thomas Dolan and Peter Wood, two iron-workers, for creating disorder on the streets, was assaulted by them, and quite severely beaten about the face and head.

Dolan is married, and has a family; Wood is only about 18 years old. They were disorderly in the vicinity of Broad and Gilmore streets, when the policeman interfered. The men jumped on the officer when he attempted to arrest them, and, after using their fists, they resorted to their feet, and gave the policeman several severe kicks in the face. Several citizens, attracted by the disturbance, went to the rescue of Mr. Pillow, and the two men took to their heels. Dolan was soon overtaken, and carried to the station-house, and later in the night Wood was ing disorder on the streets, was Pearl Bryan's Clothing-Lay Figure der of Pearl Bryan began with a statement from the Commonwealth's Attorplaced on the stand once more. There was a delay of several minutes while a dress, underclothing, and other articles found with the hacked body at Fort house, and later in the night Wood was found with the hacked body at Fort Thomas. During this lull in the proceed-ings the prisoner sat talking with his brother-in-law, Edwin Post, of De Pauw University, who appeared in the court-room for the first time. At 9:55 o'clock a side door was opened, and the members of the Bryan family-first the sons, then the gray-haired fa-ther and mother-were brought into the room.

Dr. C. W. P. Brock was summoned, and dressed the wounds of the policeman. It was found that besides many bruises about the body and face, Mr. Pillow had two severe cuts over his right eye. The injured man was taken to his home, on Marshall street, where, at last accounts, he was resulns casily.

he was resting easily. He Will Not Buy the Brown Home,

There appears to be absolutely no ground for the rumor that the residence of Mr. R. L. Brown, No. 816 west Franklin street, which is for saie, owing to the recent assignment of that gentleman, would become the property and residence of Rev. W. W. Brown, the negro president of the True Reformers' Bank.

Mr. H. A. McCurdy, who has charge of the property, when approached in connection with the matter, stated that a colored man, who had no authority to act for the Rev. Brown, came into his office, and, in a laughing way, inquiring about some business matter, asked what the agent would sell the property for, to be used as a residence for the Rev. Brown, whereupon Mr. McCurdy told him $60,900. The matter was regarded as a joke, and Mr. McCurdy laughlingly told Mr. Brown about it. Mr. McCurdy said that the report was without foundation, and that the Rev. Brown had no notion whatever of purchasing the property.

From an officer in the True Reformers' Bank, the report that the Rev. Brown was contemplating purchasing the property was denied positively. He stated that Brown neither wished to purchase the residence, nor to live in that part of the city, and that the report was without foundation.

lumber plant, just out of town, and it was discovered that it was in flames. A great crowd of people went out from the town, but could not save the property. Mr. Coughenour himself had just gons away from the mill with some men, who were running the log train, and the hauds at the mill could not make the pumps at the water tank work. The entire plant of mill and planing machinery, was consumed. About half a million feet of good lumber, three box-cars loaded with iumber, a car-load of corn, a store-house, and about 150 yards of the railroad track were also burned.

A force of hands was on the ground at work as soon as they could bear the heat to replace the railroad track. The loss to Mr. Coughenour is anywhere from 10,000 to 1515,000, with no insurance at all.

Mr. Coughenour came here from Pennsylvania about eight or ten years ago, and by most persistent work and enterprise, had succeeded in accumulating quite a little fortune, but yesterday most of it went up in smoke. The community deeply sympathize with him in his great loss.

The freight train going north had just passed the plant, but the passenger train going south, which arrives here at I o'clock, had to go back to Halifax, thence to Kinston.

The fire at the mill caught from a spark. ALLIANCE, O., April 22.—The Republican convention of the Eighteenth District, which was formerly represented by McKinley, met here to-day, and was in session but one hour. Every mention of McKinley's name was cheered. Hon, R. W. Taylor, of Columbiana county, was renominated for Congress without opposition.

UNIT RULE UNDEMOCRATIC. Reverting to the question of politics, the Governor referred to the proposition to instruct the delegates at large to the Chicago convention, and spoke strongly in opposition to it. "I am opposed to the unit rule." he said, "from principle, and always have been. It is wrong and undemocratic. What is the use of congressional custricts appointing delegates to the State Convention, if that convention is to instruct the delegates at large, and thereby applying the gag-law, silence the voices of the people of those districts. The convention should reflect the sentiment of those districts. I believe in giving the minority a right to be heard, as well as the majority. In 1829, when I went into the convention here, I was strongly for Cleveland, and we had a large Cleveland majority, but when it was proposed to apply the unit rule I fought the proposition bitterly, and finally succeeded in securing an uninstructed delegation. An-

the Chesapeake and Onio Railway Company has established a round-house. Another nuisance in that locality, he said, was the establishing of a cattle-yard by the railroad company. In view of the fact that the company was asking for the right of way through the City Gas-Works,

There appears to be absolutely no ground for the rumor that the residence of Mr. R. L. Brown, No. 816 west Franklin street, which is for sale, owing to the recent assignment of that gentleman, would become the property and residence of Rev. W. W. Brown, the negro president of the True Reformers' Hank.

Mr. E. Harvie Spence, the well-known Broad-street shoe merchant, and Mrs. Bessle A. Spencer were married at the bride's residence, No. 316 south Fourth street, last evening at 6:30 o'clock. Hev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge officiated.

No more beautiful evening could have added to the enjoyment of a company of friends gathered to witness the marriage of two persons endeared to so many of those who came to give their congratulations and benedictions. The bride, always graceful and charming, was never ways graceful and charming, was never more so than when she entered the par-lors.

Mr. and Mrs. Speciett of the house where the wedding took place were lined with groups of children, whose presence testified to the love they had for the bride, who was temporarily leaving her home.

the street."

She recognized in the prisoner Scott, Jackson, after which she was excused, and Joseph E. Pearcy, a druggist of Greencastle, was called to the witness-stand. He testified that the pocket-book found in Scott Jackson's valise was the one he sold Peari Bryan January 234.

book found in Scott Jackson's January 23d.

The most sensational testimony was that of Dr. Robert Caruthers, who conducted the post-mortem. He stated that, in his opinion, the girl was beheaded while yet alive.

Dr. Caruthers testified that the body was that of a healthy woman. The witness believed that the person who cut off the head had some knowledge of the art. It could be done with a dissecting knife about two inches long.

Dr. R. J. Gillespie, of Greencaste, Jackson had made an incriminating confession to him with respect to Pearl Bryan.

Mayor John A. Caldwell, of Cincinnati, swore that Jackson had confessed to a knowledge of the crimo, implicating walling as the perpetrator, and that Walling had made a similar confession, accusing Jackson.

While J. O. Jenkins was on the stand court adjourned until to-morrow. SCOTLAND NECK. A Big Lumber Plant Destroyed by
